Hospital Needed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EMPORIA, VA., Nov. 7.—To-day is court day, and the towns of Emporia and Belfiled are crowded with visitors from every direction. Horses and cotton have been changing hands all day.

There is a great need for a first-class modern hospital in Emporia, Influential citizens admit this. Towns throughout the country, not as large and progressive as is this one, have well equipped, paying institutions of the kind, and it is to be hoped Emporia will not remain long without a hospital or sanitarium.

The nearest hospital to Emporia is Petersburg, which is forty miles away. The town and surrounding county for twenty miles will surport an undertaking of this kind, and the fact that new industries are locating here all the time warrants this assertion.

The Schools of Accomac.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Sir, —Much interest is being manifested at this time in the annual meeting of the Accomac Educational Association, which will take place on November 24th and 25th, at Wachapreague, on the ocean side of the peninsula. The programme, which was published last week, is a practical one, one entire session being devoted to the discussion of the merits of the uniform graded course for Accomac county. This course is the result of a movement on the part of Superintendent Joynes and his high school principals to obtain a uniform method of grading in all the graded schools, and has so far been successful in placing a uniform course in all the district and graded high schools. The chairman of the grading committee is Principal Edgar Sydenstricker, of the Onancock High School, who is also president of the Educational Association. Other lopics to be discussed are practical school problems, which will be presented by the teachers in papers and in open discussion.

Mr. Sydenstricker is gratified in securing Dr. S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College.

The Auditor of Public Accounts has received several letters within the last few days from widely separated sections of the State, but all from sparsely settled localities, making inquiries about the standing of the Hartford Insurance Company, of New York city.

This company, which, it apears, has assumed a name similar to that of of the old and well-set blished fire insurance companies, is seeking to do busines without authority of law in seeblons of the State where the rates charged by other companies are somewhat high.

The Hartford Insurance Company, of New York city, is not licensed to do business in Virginia, and may of its agents or representatives who may be caught within the State are liable to prosecution and indictment. So far as the auditor could find, there is no record of this company in any of the insurance reports. He, therefore, regards it as a wild-cat company, organized for the purpose of getting money-out of the people, and one which assumes no risk or responsibility.
